

VILLA SOMEWHERE – OCHO RIOS

Villa Somewhere is a beautiful 4 bedroom villa, comfortably sleeping 8 guests and located within the 980-acre Prospect estate in the resort town of Ocho Rios. This estate has 5 sea front villas and a historic Great House. The on-site managers are on hand to cater to their individual needs, but each villa is fully staffed with a cook, butler, maid/laundress and all night security. Guests also benefit from complimentary use of the Estate's tennis court and preferential green fees at the nearby Sandals golf and country club. Also, complimentary to guests, are the popular Prospect Plantation jitney and horse back riding tours.

Villa Somewhere is nestled in over an acre of lush tropical gardens and overlooks the crystal clear waters of the Caribbean Sea. There is excellent snorkelling here, although the water is deep and there is no sandy beach. The décor of this spacious four-bedroom villa blends perfectly with the natural surroundings, with 2 of the four air-conditioned bedrooms opening onto a large living room, which leads out to an extensive comfortably furnished veranda and is equipped with TV, VCR, and DVD. The other two bedrooms open straight out to their own private patios with a covering trellis supporting overhanging flowering vines and a fabulous sea view. The villa also has a private swimming pool, BBQ and internet access, for those who wish to keep in contact with the outside world.
