

Wag Water Villa – Jamaica

Wag Water is a charming three bedroom villa overlooking the sea and forming part of the historic Prospect Plantation and named after the river that finds its way through the estate. The combination of a spacious living room, equipped with modern conveniences such as satellite TV, VCR, telephone and stereo system, along with an extensive covered veranda, with ample space for lounging and dining, provide the best of both indoor and outdoor living. Each of the air conditioned bedrooms has its own private bathroom. The tropical garden has a pool, sun deck and winding stairs leading to the clear blue waters of the Caribbean where there is some great snorkelling. The location of the villa brings with it the beautiful coastline views between Ocho Rios and Oracabessa.
